Dear (Name of the recipient),

I received your letter offering the settlement amount for my Car insurance claim, and I am writing this to tell you that I beg to differ your offer. The facts you have mentioned in the letter are not accurate, thus making my claim weak. The amount of settlement you have offered is nowhere near the damage I had to face.

The car accident has already left me traumatized, and I am in no condition to run back and forth offices for my insurance claim. I request you to check the details of the incident once again to ensure that I receive the appropriate settlement amount as soon as possible. You can reach me at 000-000-0000 or mail me anytime if you have any further queries.

Attaching the copies of receipts from the mechanic and hardware shop.

Hoping for a positive response from you.
