Dear _____ (Name of the Receiver),

I am writing this letter to you in support of my son, _____ (son's name), aging _____ (his age), who has been accused of the recent robbery incident that took place at the _____ (place of incidence), last week. I acknowledge the seriousness of this matter and would like to start this letter with an apology on behalf of my son. But, one thing that I am sure of is that he hasn't been this way always. He has grown to be a very decent and responsible kid who would be a good contribution to the society in future.

However, the act cannot be justified. He did wrong, and he shall be taught a lesson. I request you to let go of him as I promise you to make sure that this would never happen again.

_____ (son's name) has been under a bad influence lately. I and my wife think that it is a result of that. We will make sure that he is not a part of the respective group from now on. But at the same time, as a father, I would like to testify to my son's character through this character reference letter.

Looking forward to a positive outcome, and thanking you in anticipation.

Yours sincerely,

_____ (your name).
